

NSW Vocational
Education & Training
Accreditation Board

Australasian Medical Training

HLTCPR201A Perform CPR

For the General Practitioner

This unit of competency (HLTCPR201A Perform CPR) describes the skills and knowledge required to perform Cardiopulmonary Resuscitation (CPR) in line with the Australian Resuscitation Council (ARC) Guidelines. Inclusive of automated external defibrillator (AED).

This activity has been approved by the RACGP QA&CPD Program.

Total 5 CPD points (Category 2)

Specific Elements included are:

Respond to signs of an unconscious casualty
Perform CPR
Communicate details of the incident

The course can be completed:

Face to face training at your practise

The qualification is nationally recognised and valid for 1 year from completion.
We recommend attending annual refresher.

Qualifications

Statement of Attainment is awarded on successful completion of the course
CPD Points: 5

Assessments:

This includes a multiple choice question paper and practical scenario based assessment and we suggest you wear casual clothes for this activity

Fees and Charges:

Corporate rates and group pricing is available.

Contact us:

T: 02 9575 7552

M: 04000 13025

Email: info@amtraining.com.au

Registration is available online at www.amtraining.com.au